During EUROSON2023 there is also an Ultrasound Congress for Students (STUC) taking place – this is an opportunity for students to get to know ultrasound better with short-focused lectures on each topic from the Experts and a lot of practical skill improvement with hands-on sessions. This Congress will be divided in two different groups – basic and advanced. STUC also includes scientific sessions with the best abstracts from students in different topics about ultrasound and prizes for the best ones.

Use the chance and register now!
