Welcome Message

Dear Colleagues, delegates and friends,
Warmest Welcome to all!

The Philippines is greatly honored and happy that the World Association of Radiopharmaceutical and Molecular Therapy (WARMTH) has chosen Manila as the venue for the 8th ICRT-2013. On behalf of the Organizing Committee, we welcome you to the 8th International Conference on Radiopharmaceutical Therapy to be held in Sofitel Philippine Plaza Hotel, Manila, Philippines, on November 17 to 21, 2013.

Your host, the Philippine Society of Nuclear Medicine, in coordination with the World Association of Radiopharmaceutical and Molecular Therapy (WARMTH), has prepared a program covering the entire range of Theranostics in the field of Nuclear Medicine, particularly basic sciences, instrumentation, radiobiology, radiopharmaceuticals, dosimetry and molecular imaging.

Participants will also find interesting topics in Nuclear Cardiology during the Pre-congress November 17, 2013, which will be held at the St. Luke's Medical Center,

Global City. Renowned lecturers in the field of Nuclear Medicine and Positron Emission Tomography and Radiology will also share with us the latest therapies and breakthroughs, both in Oncology and Endocrinology, in the various plenary sessions and symposia. Younger colleagues, on the other hand, will present their research works and compete for the best paper award.

The Philippines enjoys a very pleasant weather in November and During this time, visitors will find Manila in the thick of preparations for the Holidays, particularly Christmas.

Natural tourist attractions abound in the 7,107 islands in the archipelago and congress participants are encouraged to extend their stay to visit them. The world famous Filipino hospitality will take care of the rest.

We look forward to welcoming you in Manila!

Mabuhay!

Emerita Andres-Barrenechea
